

BE RICH

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. If time and money were no object, what would you do?
2. Is it easier for you to give money or time to those in need? Why?
3. Why do we hesitate to give to others even though we have more than we need?
4. Read Luke 6:35. Talk about a time when you were kind to someone who hadn't treated you well.
5. This year's Be Rich effort focuses on poverty, hunger, and children-at-risk. Which of these areas touches you more deeply than the others? Explain.

MOVING FORWARD

First-century Christians changed the world. Not through preaching, teaching, or theology, but through their enormous generosity and by recognizing the humanity of those who lived on the margins of society. We can do the same. With the national economy in shambles, your light of generosity can shine brighter than ever before.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.
